ARDIAN REINFORCES ITS ACTIVE ROLE IN RESPONSIBLE INVESTMENT

Ardian partnered for the Paris session of the Global Workshop Series held by the UN-supported Principles for Responsible Investment

Paris, June 3rd 2016 - Ardian, the independent private investment company, has co-hosted the PRI's 10-year anniversary celebration in Paris to discuss and shape the PRI's Blueprint for Responsible Investment. The Paris workshop, which took place on June 1st and was attended by signatories and regional stakeholders, was part of a global series of workshops that the PRI is holding this year.

Attendees were invited to reflect upon the future of the PRI in the next decade and to share their views with regard to the successes and shortcomings of the initiative. This direct consultation aimed to address key challenges that the PRI is facing: including but not limited to the accountability of signatories and the development of a sustainable financial system. This event was an opportunity for a lively exchange of opinions and ideas between participants and the PRI team. In the spirit of the PRI, collaboration was fostered and encouraged.

The outcome of these global workshops will be presented at 'PRI in Person', PRI's annual conference, 6-8 September, in Singapore.

This event demonstrated Ardian's long-standing commitment within the PRI community to promote the PRI's mission to achieve an economically efficient, sustainable global financial system that will reward long-term, responsible investment and benefit the environment and society as a whole.

Ardian has a strong heritage in responsible investment. In 2009, it became one of the first investment companies to sign the UN-supported PRI. It has also developed its own CSR Charter. Ardian integrates environmental, social and governance (ESG) criteria into the whole investment process, from due diligence to investment decision, through holding period and exit.

Dominique Senequier, President of Ardian, said: "We truly believe that excellent ESG practices are highly effective tools both to improve performance, as well as our positive impact on stakeholders and wider communities. That is why we have long been developing and implementing our approach to responsible investment. I would like to thank the PRI for the strong positive impact they have in the industry."

Fiona Reynolds, Managing Director of the PRI, concluded: "The event comprised a number of important discussions that will feed into our Blueprint for Responsible Investment over the next decade. It was therefore an excellent, and rewarding, day."

ABOUT THE PRI

The United Nations-supported Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI) Initiative is an international network of investors working together to put the six Principles for Responsible Investment into practice. Its goal is to understand the implications of sustainability for investors and support signatories to incorporate these issues into their investment decision making and ownership practices. In implementing the Principles, signatories contribute to the development of a more sustainable global financial system. The PRI currently has over 1500 signatories, who collectively represent US$62 trillion in assets under management.
